

Photography Glyn Thomas

“The clients wanted a contemporary addition that provided a real connection between the new indoor and outdoor living spaces. We responded with a design that has created a confident building that maintains the privacy necessary for a corner block whilst providing for the lifestyle of the occupants, the site and the bustling beachside locale”.